

BEST MARKED PANEL UMPIRE The Lance Moore Trophy

The Trophy was presented in memory of former panel umpire Lance Moore by his family. It has been awarded since 2003 to the regular panel umpire with the highest average mark (out of 25) over the season.

|      | Winner                         | Average Mark |
|------|---------------------------------------|---------------------|
| 2003 | Clive Reynolds                        | 21.00               |
| 2004 | Bill Carter                           | 19.42               |
| 2005 | Bill Carter                           | 21.14               |
| 2006 | Bill Carter                           | 20.93               |
| 2007 | Clive Reynolds                        | 21.33               |
| 2008 | Bill Carter                           | 21.43               |
| 2009 | Brian McAleese                        | 20.83               |
| 2010 | Norman Smith                          | 22.03               |
| 2011 | Brian McAleese                        | 21.93               |
| 2012 | Ian Broumpton                         | 23.00               |
| 2013 | Alan Abdy                             | 22.18               |
| 2014 | Neil Gabriel                          | 21.37               |
| 2015 | Neil Gabriel                          | 23.33               |
| 2016 | Richard Barker                        | 22.23               |
| 2017 | Jonathan Corcoran                     | 23.21               |
| 2018 | Rob Smith                             | 24.50               |
| 2019 | Keith Pepper                          | 23.58               |
| 2020 | Not awarded; Covid-19 affected season |                     |
| 2021 | Paul Stubley                          | 24.10               |
| 2022 | Paul Stubley                          | 23.93               |
| 2023 | Craig Townend                         | 23.77               |